

Anthropology in Action

SUBMISSION INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The editors welcome contributions for publication, both articles of general interest and ones related to thematic issues. Authors should submit articles as Microsoft Word, OpenOffice, or Rich Text Format (rtf) files to the online submissions system: <http://ojs.berghahnjournals.com/index.php/aia>.

Authors must register with the journal on the submission website prior to submitting, or, if already registered, they can simply log in. On registering as an Author, authors have the option of also registering as a Reviewer (to be called upon to undertake peer reviews of other submissions).

Research articles should amount to a maximum of 6,000 words (including notes and references). We also welcome shorter pieces, especially from anthropologists in non-academic settings, which should range between 2500 and 3000 words (including notes and references) as well as book or mixed media review articles.

All queries shall be addressed to the editors via aia@berghahnjournals.com.

COVER PAGE

The cover page should provide the title of the article, complete contact information for each author (mailing address, phone number and email), biographical data of approximately 25 to 50 words for each author. including an ORCID, a total word count, the number of tables and/or figures included and any acknowledgements. Affiliations and email addresses will be posted online for indexing/abstracting purposes.

Please remember that this should be uploaded as a separate document. Article files uploaded should be fully anonymized.

FORMATTING

The document should be set at the US letter standard size. The entire document (including notes and references) should be double-spaced with 1-inch (2.5 cm) margins on all sides and no extra spaces between paragraphs. A 12-point standard font such as Arial is required for all text, including headings, notes and references. Any unusual or non-English characters or diacritics should be flagged by placing the entire word in red type.

ABSTRACT/KEYWORDS/TITLES

The article must include an abstract of no more than 125 words and 5 to 8 keywords. Titles should be no more than two lines in length. The abstract should not duplicate the text verbatim but rather include the research question or puzzle, identify the data and give some indication of the findings. Keywords should be drawn from the content and not duplicate the article title, listed in alphabetical order and separated by commas; only proper nouns should be capitalised. Consider how readers may use keywords to search for relevant articles when reviewing literature.

COPYRIGHT/PERMISSIONS

Upon acceptance, authors are required to submit copyright agreements and all necessary permission letters for reprinting or modifying copyrighted materials, both textual and graphic. The author is fully responsible for obtaining all permissions and clearing any associated fees to reproduce copyrighted materials. These should be uploaded onto the online submissions system.

RESEARCH FUNDING

All research funding (often mentioned in the acknowledgments section) must not conflict with the terms outlined in the journal copyright transfer agreement. Prior to submission to Berghahn, authors need to establish the requirements of their funding. Authors are also encouraged to acknowledge fully key contributors to their work, including research participants.

ARTWORK

For optimal reproduction, figures or photos should be submitted as high-resolution JPGs or TIFFs (300 ppi), or as EPS files with all fonts embedded. All images should be at least 4 x 4 inches at the resolution indicated. Tables should be made and submitted in Microsoft Word or rtf. All figures and tables should be in separate files and numbered consecutively; only placement indicators and captions (with source/copyright information) should be included in the articles themselves. For more details, please see our Artwork submission webpage.

PROCESS FOR REFEREEING AND ACCEPTING ARTICLES

Anthropology in Action is a refereed journal. Submissions are considered on the understanding that the article is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. Articles are sent to at least two scholars with relevant experience and expertise. Referees are asked to advise the editors whether the article should be published and, if so, with what recommended changes. The editors respond to the author with their decision, a list of any changes needed for publication and the anonymous referees' comments, or a summary thereof.

PUBLICATION

Manuscripts accepted for publication that do not conform to the style guide may be returned to the author for amendment. Manuscripts may also be returned if they are longer than the advised word length or if greater conciseness in the writing is required. The editors also reserve the right to alter usage to conform to the style guide issued by the publishers. Authors may not supply new materials or request major alterations following the copyediting stage, so please ensure that all text is final upon acceptance. Contributors of research articles will receive one free copy of the relevant issue and may purchase additional copies at a reduced price or purchase offprints.

Have other questions about submitting your manuscript? Please refer to Berghahn's Journal Author FAQs for additional information.
